In order that the record of this year, of this class, of this age,
May not be lost in the waves of the great sea of life
And swept upon the shores of Eternity unsung,
We hereby set down on these pages a portion of this year,
This class, and this age, so that we may better recall some of
The enriching moments we shared while seeking to fulfill
Our academic, cultural, and social aims at wonderful Fairmont State College.

THE MOUND 1960

FAIRMONT STATE COLLEGE

FAIRMONT, WEST VIRGINIA

The 1960 Mound is dedicated to the memory of Dr. John W. Pence, President of Fairmont State College. All who knew him felt the tremendous loss when learning of his death on Wednesday, November 25, 1959. If the college has earned the reputation of being friendly, it is no more than a reflection of the man who influenced it for thirty-three years, as teacher, Dean of Men, Dean of the College, Acting President, and since 1952, as President.

A conscientious scholar, he strove for high standards of instruction and scholarship on the campus. As a broad-visioned administrator, he was diligent in working for the steady growth of the college. But it is as an unconscious model for one and all that his influence will go furthest through the years.

Dr. Pence was an unassuming man, of deep personal modesty — his concern was for others. His unfailing courtesy was based on intrinsic kindness. Firm in guidance, patient, and calm, he was able to draw the best from others.

Dr. Pence was approachable and had time for everyone; teacher, student or campus employee could be assured that his smile and personal greeting sprang from a sincere liking and interest.

Fairmont State College, which has had the benefit of this leader's lifetime of service, is a different kind of school because it has been influenced by the guidance of Dr. John W. Pence.

On May 10, 1960 the Alpha Chapter of the Zeta Sigma Fraternity became a chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon Social Fraternity. Tau Kappa Epsilon was founded at Illinois Wesleyan University on January 10, 1899, as a new kind of fraternity in which members would be chosen "not for wealth, rank, or honor but for personal worth and character."

This chapter is the last remaining chapter of Zeta Sigma Fraternity. Zeta Sigma was founded as a national fraternity for men at Fairmont State on May 10, 1935.

FSC 12 — SHEPHERD 6

At the opening of the 1959 football season the chance of repeating the fine record of just two years earlier seemed slight, due to the loss of players through graduation. But through the fine coaching of "Deacon" Duvall and his staff, and the desire of the team to win, the Falcons were able to remain undefeated and capture the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship.

With Shepherd dominating the ball throughout the first half, it looked as though Fairmont State College was in for a long season. Moses Guin's fine blocking and the outstanding running and passing of Ed Helminski, Kent Malloy, and Bob Newbrough proved to be a successful combination. Fairmont State wrapped up the game with a four-yard plunge by halfback Helminski.

FSC 18 — DAVIS & ELKINS 0

Davis & Elkins proved to be no match for Coach "Deacon" Duvall's chargers and his well-employed two-platoon system. In spite of being sidelined for the biggest part of the game Kent Malloy proved his great ability by directing two of the three touchdowns.

FSC 7 — WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN 0

Sam Ross, coach of the "Bobcats," put it well, "We just couldn't run the ends and also stop Ed Helminski." Ed appeared to be the main cog with his tremendous running ability. The most spectacular play of the game occurred after Ed was trapped on a pass play and broke loose for a first down on Wesleyan's eleven. He then smashed off tackle and into paydirt from the three.

FSC 26 — CONCORD 6

With Kent Malloy sidelined with an infected throwing arm, Joe Bundy, ordinarily a defensive end, turned in a very creditable performance as he pitched his first touchdown strike on a 62-yard play to end Curtis Guin.

Ed Helminski gave a fine demonstration of his All-American talent by gaining 143 yards in 18 carries and two touchdowns. "Mr. Inside," Moses Guin, added the final touches of the night on a six-yard touchdown scoring dash. Another bright spot on the Falcon lineup was veteran end Mike Currence, who played his first game of the season after recovering from a swimming accident occurring last summer.

FSC 19 — WEST VIRGINIA TECH 12

This was a great day for the Homecoming fans as the undefeated Falcons triumphed in a last period upset over West Virginia Tech's powerhouse. Sound defensive tactics, employed by Coach Duvall, made the difference in the game.

The Falcons traded possession for position all afternoon, and their big break came midway through the final quarter when Gene Beasley intercepted one of quarterback Dick Johnson's passes and scampered 35 yards for the winning touchdown.

FSC 13 — SALEM 6

FSC's defensive-minded squad parlayed a blocked punt by Fred Colburn into a winning touchdown to defeat Salem in a battle between the undefeated Eastern and Western Division leaders.

The winning touchdown was actually set up by a 50-yard punt by Moses Guin, which gave Salem the ball deep within their own territory. Four plays later, Salem's punt was blocked and the Falcons recovered on the thirteen. Jim Shaner scored from the one-yard line after the Falcons made four tries. The place-kick, by Aaron Miller, was good enough to end the scoring.

FSC 7 — GLENVILLE 0

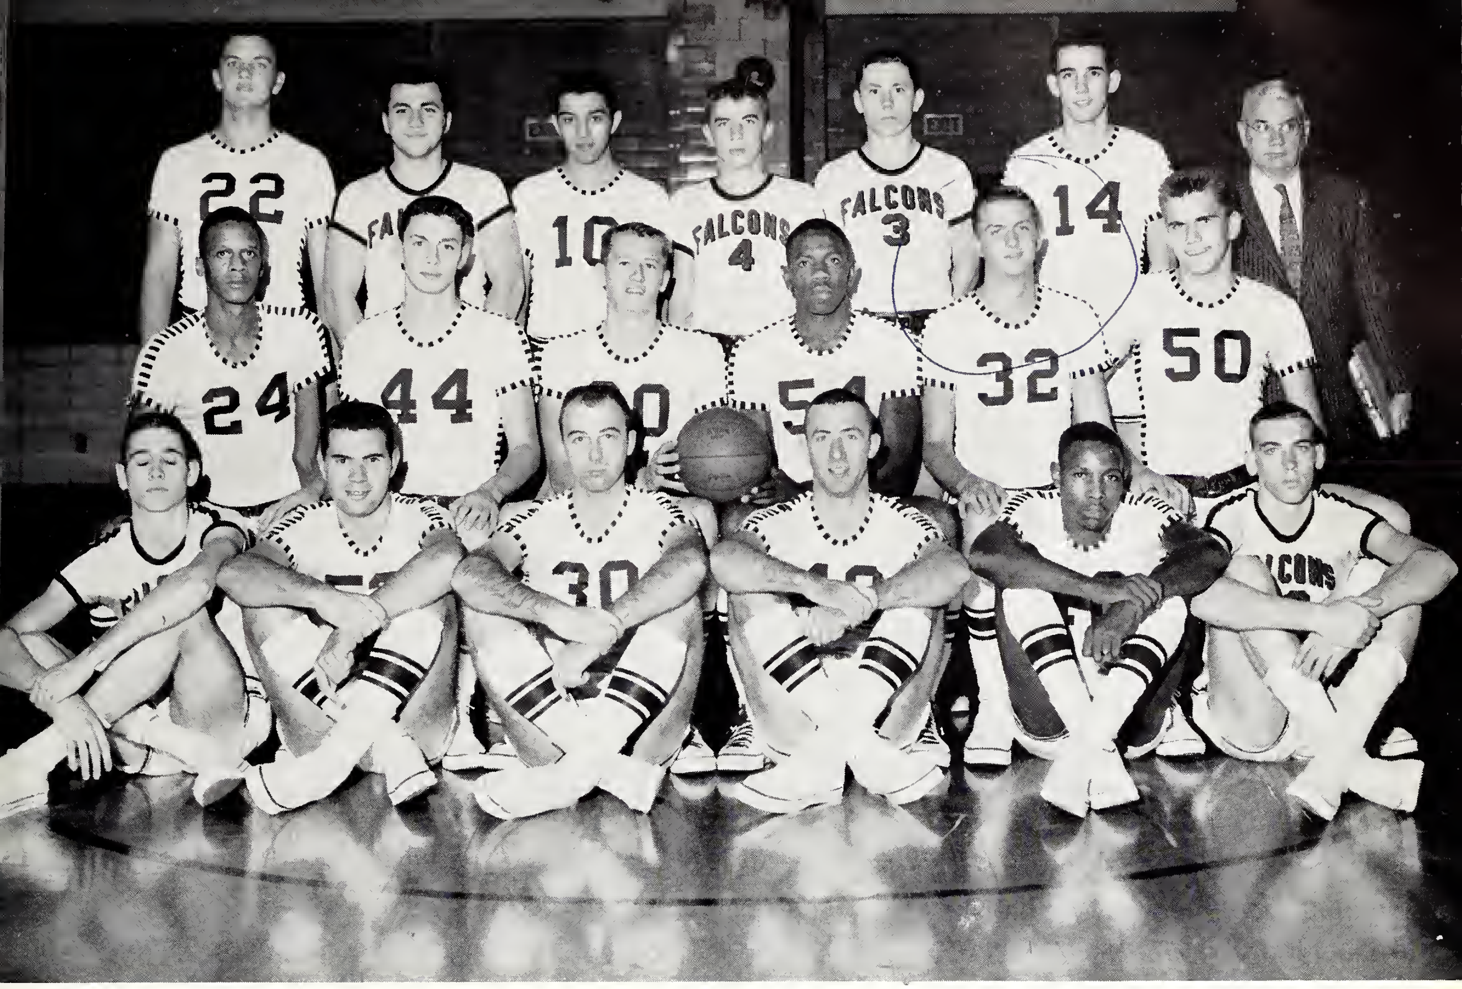
The Falcons proved the age-old theory that the best defense is a good defense. Four different times, the "Hercules Hardheads," FSC's stout defensive unit, stopped Glenville's threats within the Falcon's ten-yard line.

FSC was unable to cross into paydirt until the fourth quarter. The touchdown was set up with a pass from Kent Malloy to Bob Newbrough on the five-yard line. Malloy again connected to Curtis Guin later, who then went on to paydirt. The highlight of the game was a sparkling sixty-four yard run by Moses Guin, which put the Falcons on the eleven-yard line.

FSC 25 — WEST LIBERTY 13

The Falcons presented their best passing attack of the season when Kent Malloy hit on five of his seven passes. Senior Moses Guin contributed outstandingly with two touchdowns, despite a severe nose injury.

The Falcons defense had a field day by intercepting four of West Liberty's passes. The interception which really brought the spectators to their feet was that by Ed Helminski on the forty-five yard line. Ed ran the remaining fifty-five yards for the touchdown that broke the game wide open.



VARSITY BASKETBALL

With the three top scorers from the previous season graduated, the Falcon "Basketballers" found themselves at the very embryonic stages of a rebuilding program this year. Freshmen and non-lettermen provided the nucleus of the ball club. Only two veterans were on the squad. This year's team was perhaps one of the most inexperienced squads the Fairmonters ever fielded. Despite the record, the team, led by veterans Ron Everhart and Curt Guin, played a spirited brand of ball.

FAIRMONT, WEST VIRGINIA

Fairmont is the county seat of Marion County and is in the center of the northern West Virginia coal, gas, and oil fields. A thriving city of some 30,000 inhabitants, it is easily accessible to all principal cities in the Eastern United States.

Fairmont offers unusual cultural and economic advantages. It possesses excellent stores for shopping, and numerous churches of all faiths. A civic-minded community, it has earned the reputation of being "The Friendly City." The Mound business managers urge you to patronize those firms and businessmen who were kind enough to support our college through purchasing space in this yearbook.

I sincerely hope that you have enjoyed reading your yearbook. Much hard work has been done in preparing it you you.

I wish to thank the members of the Mound Staff, who helped me in many ways, also, Mrs. Lebo, for her kindly advice, Mr. Michael Romino, official Mound photographer, Dr. Creasy, Dr. Gray, Mr. Turley, Al Ludwick, Ron Baker, Richard Toothman, and Fred Schroeder, for their photography work, the administration, faculty, other college personnel, and the students of Fairmont State College. You have all helped make this yearbook possible.

A MAN CAN GROW

—And Keep On Growing

WITH OWENS-ILLINOIS GLASS COMPANY

Ours is a growing company—and we can grow together in fields where a man has ample opportunity and room to carve out a satisfying life-time career.

We offer you stability that is inherent in the business of manufacturing and distributing a variety of goods, continually being broadened by the development of new products reaching new markets.

You can enjoy the advantages that come from association with a company which is outstanding in reputation and prestige in its field.

You can benefit from a training program that has proved its worth to a large number of young men during the past several years as we have expanded our operations.

You can have the security to be found in an organization where men stay and grow with a growing company, where there are liberal life and health insurance plans, and solidly established retirement plans.
